ON THE COVER:

Lenoir Rhyne's Homecoming Queen this year was lovely Carolyn Thornton, a junior from Spencer, N. C. Miss Thornton reigned over the affairs of the day October 4th, and was crowned before the game played by Lenoir Rhyne and Bridgewater colleges on College Field.

"You - Are Important to Lenoir Rhyne"

Dear Friends of L. R. C.:

As I begin writing a message for this first bulletin of the new school year, my first thought is that there will be new readers, for Lenoir Rhyne's family of sons and daughters is growing rapidly. Since the May issue of the bulletin there are one hundred seventy-three more alumni with the bachelor's degree, one hundred twenty-four having graduated in June and forty-nine in August. Thirty-eight other graduates have received certificates for courses completed in the Commercial Department.

A special greeting is extended to you who have so recently left the campus for new fields of endeavor and service. The Class of '52 brightened the paths they left behind by erecting four campus lamps as their parting gift to the college. Your gift is symbolic of the light that all L. R. graduates should shed upon the pathways of life.

Recently I said to a group of graduates that the only way Lenoir Rhyne can justify her existence is through the contribution made by those she sends out into the world. Whatever illumination you gained here must be radiated through your influence in a world that has many dark areas and sorely needs more light. At the college we rejoice in every report telling of the achievements of our former students.

Again this year we have a capacity enrollment with 807 students registered for the first semester. One of our regrets is that we did not have room to accept many applicants whom we wanted to enroll. We believe the main reason so many have been seeking admission is the favorable impression our graduates are making and the good report they give of the college.

We endeavor to show our appreciation of your good will by constantly strengthening and improving the institution as our resources make this possible. Just prior to the opening of this session we held a faculty retreat in which we spent three days studying together the purpose and program of a Christian college. Throughout the conference it was evident that all who participated were motivated by the single desire to improve their stewardship in their respective positions.

We of the faculty and staff, while conscious of our own responsibility, realize that other groups have important roles to play if Lenoir Rhyne is to continue to enlarge her ministry and influence. Among the chief of these is the Alumni Association. We are grateful for what you are doing now and we believe that the number of loyal alumni will continue to grow.

VOIGT R. CROMER, President.

"A Blueprint for Progress"

Dear Alumni:

Thanks to you and your support—our 1952 Homecoming was a great success. Many of you were with us to participate in the events of the day—which included a big parade, a barbecue, the football game between the Bears and Bridgewater College and the open house and dance in the college gym after the grid rat race. Your alumni officers would like to express our thanks to the student body committees which co-operated with the General Alumni Association for their work and enthusiasm in seeing that the Homecoming for '52 will be long remembered as a great day for those who were fortunate enough to be present.

Homecoming marked the beginning of a new year of Alumni activity for your association. Many chapter meetings, executive committee meetings, and the major promotion of the 1952 Loyalty Fund Drive will take place between now and Alumni Day next June. It is necessary for all of us to do our part so that through these endeavors the Alumni Association can carry the torch to help build a greater Lenoir Rhyne.

D. R. MAUNEY, JR., President General Alumni Association.

"HOW GREEN I AM"—A group of the 1952 "crop" of lowly freshmen are shown above as they take a few moments out, with the consent of the "sophs", from their cleaning duties. These are only some of one of the largest freshman classes in the history of Lenoir Rhyne.

Formal Opening Held For 62nd Session

St. Andrew's Lutheran Church was nearly filled to capacity when Dr. Voigt R. Cromer, president of Lenoir Rhyne, addressed the student body at the formal opening of the college.

Opening the sixty-second session of the college, President Cromer welcomed and advised the students to take the "high way" in their "social, intellectual, moral and spiritual development." The opening was highlighted by Dr. Cromer's address.

The honorable Donald S. Menzies, Mayor of Hickory, brought greetings from the city of Hickory saying that Lenoir Rhyne College is one of the city's greatest assets. Rev. J. Elwood Carroll, president of the Hickory Ministerial Association and pastor of the First Methodist Church brought official welcome from the churches of Hickory. Barry Beatty, student body president, welcomed both old and new students to the campus.

First Semester Enrollment Numbers 807 Students

A total of 807 students are enrolled this semester, according to Dean E. L. Setzler, registrar. Enrollment at Lenoir Rhyne this semester increased slightly over that of first semester last year. The number of students is twenty-five above the first semester enrollment of 782 last year.

A class breakdown this year is as follows: freshmen, 261; sophomores, 176; juniors, 150; seniors, 139; 40, one-year business students; 31, Saturday school students and 10, special students.

The returned veterans enrolled this semester total 81. Thirty-three of these are listed as Korean veterans and are receiving benefits under the new Korean Bill.

Many dormitory students could not be accepted because of a lack of housing facilities on the campus and in Hickory.

New President's Home Is Campus Social Center

For the first time in the history of Lenoir Rhyne the president's family occupies a college-owned home. Begun in August of 1951, this basically Georgian colonial style structure, designed by Clemmer and Horton of Hickory, was completed last May.

The twelve-room, brick-veneer home is located on a site adjoining the college property facing Fourth Street, N. E. Being in a comparatively new residential development, the 250-foot deep, 300-foot front lot is still largely wooded; however landscaping has been finished, grass sowed, and flowers planted.

As one enters the front door, to the left of the hall is a spacious living room. On the right of the hall is a dining room, and behind this are a breakfast room, kitchen and utility room. Running the length of the house in the back are a den, a porch, a bedroom, and bathroom. There are three bedrooms and a study on the second floor. The entire interior is plastered, except the basement, which extends under the whole of the house, enclosing the furnace room, a storage room, a recreation room, and a two-car garage.

"We were thrilled with the commodious facilities of the new home upon moving in. Now that we have occupied the house for five months, we know from experience that it is well planned and ample for the purposes which it is to serve," stated Dr. Cromer. President and Mrs. Cromer state that it is their intention to have the home do more than serve the needs of the president's family. "We hope to have it serve the entire college family in various ways. Two large college groups have already been entertained there. The recreation room in the basement is available for the use of smaller student groups."

Herman-Sipe and Company of Conover were the contractors, and an oilburning radiant heating system was installed by Ingold of Hickory, who were awarded the plumbing and heating contract.

A major portion of the money necessary to construct the home was donated by Mr. and Mrs. Albert D. Eckard and their son Neil Eckard, of Hickory.

"A cordial invitation is extended to all alumni to visit the president's home whenever you return to the campus," said Dr. Cromer.

They Yell for the Bears

Fans of the Lenoir Rhyne College Bears will be led in their cheers this season by six newly elected cheerleaders. From the fifteen candidates the Student Body selected three women and three men to guide the spectators in their yells for the Bruins.

Among those re-elected members of the squad are Miss Jo Ann Hall, a junior from Salisbury; Miss Anne Fisher, a sophomore from Spindale; Blease Scott, a sophomore from Lexington; and H. G. Fisher, Jr., a junior from Spindale. Paul Maus, a senior from Rocky Mount, was previously elected head cheerleader.

New members of the team are Miss Reita Efird, a freshman from Lenoir, and Jack Davis, a freshman from China Grove.

These cheerleaders will call the yells for the Bears throughout the 1952 football season.

260 Freshmen Initiated

Spring and Fall of each year ends and begins the process of education for many, and the beginning of this season was no different from the numerous other school sessions in that 260 eager and somewhat green freshmen embarked on their college careers here at Lenoir Rhyne.

The largest freshman class in the history of the college began arriving on Monday, September 8, several days before the upperclassmen for initiations and orientations. After settling down in their new habitations, wandering collectively over the campus in weird and startling garb, one may have seen them engaging in a variety of unusual acts.

It was not a rare occurrence to see mobs of these lowly creatures wielding brooms in unlikely places about the campus, marching in a chain-like procession while chanting what seemed to be their native song, "How Green I Am," exchanging manicures, or sitting forlornly on street corners.

During the first phase of college habitation the Freshman is dominated by a higher class order, the SOPHOMORE. Under this domination the new species is subjected to trials and court sentences for all blunders committed. This judicial system is, of course, only fair, for the freshman being very untutored and green, must be disciplined in some manner.

After this period of training the most high SOPHOMORES entertained the new students and freshmen at an open house in Cline Gym.

The climax of the social initiation was the annual Welcome Dance, sponsored by the Student Body and the administration, in Cline Gym on Thursday, September 25.

Frosh Tea Held

President and Mrs. Voigt R. Cromer and the Lenoir Rhyne Woman's Club were host to the new students on Thursday afternoon, September 18, from 3:30 to 5:00. The reception took place at the president's new home, 740 Fourth Street, N. E.

The guests were greeted at the door by Mrs. G. R. Patterson, Mrs. Frank Cauble, Mrs. Walter Nau, and Mrs. Clarence Stasavich.

Mrs. George Bowden introduced the receiving line composed of the club officers, Miss Mary Newton, Mrs. Kenneth Lee, Mrs. E. J. Sox, Mrs. Roy Ullman, and other members of the club.

A yellow and white color scheme was carried out in the dining room. The table was covered with a handmade cloth and the center piece was an arrangement of yellow roses and tube roses in a crystal apergne. Punch bowls were on each end of the table and presided over by Mrs. P. E. Monroe, Mrs. Vida Fetner, Mrs. Beulah Frady and Miss Minnie Peedin. Ice cream, cakes and nuts were served by Miss Inez Seagle, Miss Opal Wike, Miss Margaret Ridenhour, Miss Jean Lutz, Miss Ann Lentz, Mrs. Earl Aiken, Mrs. C. B. Parks, Mrs. Jim Hamilton, Mrs. William Brandon, and Mrs. Russell Brown.

Mrs. R. L. Fritz, Sr. and Mrs. Harlan Creech presided over the registration in the den.

Goodbyes were said by Mrs. Craig Yoder and Mrs. Frank Gray.

Approximately three hundred students attended the reception.

Faculty Retreat Held at Lutheridge

The Lenoir Rhyne College faculty and administrative staff held its first pre-session conference at Lutheridge on September 5, 6, and 7. The purpose of the meeting was to give the Christian teacher encouragement, renewal and inspiration.

The schedule for the three days included worship, addresses, discussion periods, fellowship hours and recreations. Dr. Frank P. Cauble, pastor of the College Church, conducted the devotional service with which each session began. "The Social, Intellectual and Moral Implications of College Teaching" was the subject of three profound and stimulating addresses delivered by Dr. Arnold S. Nash, Head of the Department of Religion and Professor of the History of Religion at the University of North Carolina.

Dr. M. L. Stirewalt, retired seminary Professor of Systematic Theology, at the Lutheran Theological Southern Seminary, and a former member of the Lenoir Rhyne College Board of Trustees, gave a clear and comprehensive portrail of the teacher's role in speaking on "What the Teacher Can Give the Students."

Each session included general and group discussion periods and the conference was divided into four sections. In these sections every individual was given an opportunity to participate and make repeated contributions to the discussion. In these periods numerous phases and problems of the college program received attention as the efforts were made to give the ideas presented by the speakers a practical application.

1952 Homecoming Is Gala Affair

Saturday, October 4, brought many alumni and friends back to their alma mater and to the festivities of the 1952 Lenoir Rhyne Homecoming. Along about the beginning of the afternoon old grads and their guests began arriving to see the annual Homecoming parade.

The last tacks and crepe paper being frantically put into place and last minute preparations made; the parade, featuring bands, floats, fraternity sponsors, and the Queen got underway. Approximately 10,000 people viewed the caravan along the designated route.

At 4:30 the annual alumni barbecue began on the North campus. Over two hundred alumni and their families enjoyed the fellowship and meal, and some sixteen attendance prizes, donated by the merchants of Hickory, were given away.

Thirty minutes prior to the game between the Bears and Bridgewater Miss Carolyn Thornton, a junior from Spencer, N. C., was crowned in ceremonies on College Field.

Sponsors and escorts for the Homecoming celebration were Student Body Officers; Barry Beatty, President, sponsoring Mary Abernathy; H. G. Fisher, Jr., Vice-President, sponsoring Carol Long; Faye Robinson, Secretary-Treasurer, sponsoring Gene Hanna. The Homecoming Queen sponsored Walter Baker.

Publication Heads: Seth Crapps, Editor of the Lenoir Rhynean, sponsoring Anna Castor; Charles Gardenhour, Business Manager of the Lenoir Rhynean, sponsoring Mina Boward; Warren Danley, Editor of the Hacawa, sponsoring Lois Owen; and Ben Shumate, Business Manager of the Hacawa, sponsoring Mary Ann Gray.

Senior Football Players: James Hummel, sponsoring Phyllis Blackwelder and escorted by Virgil Whitley; Giles Setzer, sponsoring Dorothy Walker, and escorted by Gilbert Heilig; Bill (Shorty) Crook, sponsoring Ruby Hockemeyer and escorted by Ross Ritchie; Aneglo Frank, sponsoring Mrs. Angelo Frank and escorted by Monty Moore; Sidney Wilson, sponsoring Barbara Beckerdite, and escorted by Wayne Moore; Donald Kirpatrick, sponsoring Joyce Robinson, and escorted by Joe Wessinger; Wallace Gilbert, sponsoring Nancy Heavener, and escorted by Carroll Saine; James Garrett, sponsoring Mrs. Carl Garrett, and escorted by Mr. Carl Garrett; Ted Goins, sponsoring Frances Summey, and escorted by Sam Goins; Gene Robinson, sponsoring Betty Jeanne Watts, and escorted by Joe Coulter; Jerry Robinson, sponsoring Ida Moore, and escorted by Tommy Funderburk; and Steve Trudnak, sponsoring Martha Ray Rhyne, and escorted by Edward Trudnak.

LEE KIRBY

This year the 1952 Bear Football games are being broadcast over a small network of North Carolina Stations. The play by play is being done by one of the nation's leading sportscasters, Lee Kirby, who is director of sports for stations WBT-WBTV Charlotte, North Carolina. For the past seventeen years Mr. Kirby has called the Duke games but due to the fact the Atlantic Refining Company has discontinued sponsorship of these games, Kirby was secured by the Lenoir Rhyne Department of Public Relations for the Bear Football Net. Some of the stations co-operating are WBT-FM Charlotte, WGNC - AM and FM Gastonia, WBBO (AM-FM) Forest City, WMNC Morganton with WHKY Hickory as the key network station. Sonny Hoyle, popular WHKY announcer, is doing the color for the games.

Lenoir Rhyne Octet Sings In Philly

The Lenoir Rhyne College Octet, directed by Prof. Kenneth B. Lee, of the college music department, attended the Triennial Convention of the Women's Missionary Society of the United Lutheran Church of America at Philadelphia.

At the convention the eight choir members rendered "Bless the Lord, O My Soul" by Ippolitov-Ivanov, "Into the Woods" by Lee and "With a Voice of Singing" by Shaw. Two secular selections were presented by the Octet at the banquet Saturday evening.

Conrad B Park Awarded Ph. D. From Carolina

Dr. Conrad B. Park, former Associate Professor of Chemistry, has recently been conferred a Doctor of Philosophy degree from the University of North Carolina and a full Professorship at Lenoir Rhyne.

Formerly, Dr. Park had received his Bachelor of Arts degree from Newberry College, and his Master of Arts from the University of North Carolina.

After graduation he accepted a position with the Texas Company as research chemist from 1943 to 1946 in Port Arthur, Texas, where he did chemical research with aviation gasoline. In 1948, he came to Lenoir Rhyne from the faculty of Carthage College, Carthage, Illinois. Immediately he began research on his Doctor's degree through organic Chemistry. Dr. Park's dissertation for his degree was "The Synthesis and Surface Activity of Certain Sodium-Alkoxybenzoates" (synthetic surface active agents.)

Miss Margaret Ridenhour and Miss Thelma Rast received their M.A., and M.Mus., respectively, from Peabody College for Teachers in Nashville, Tennessee.

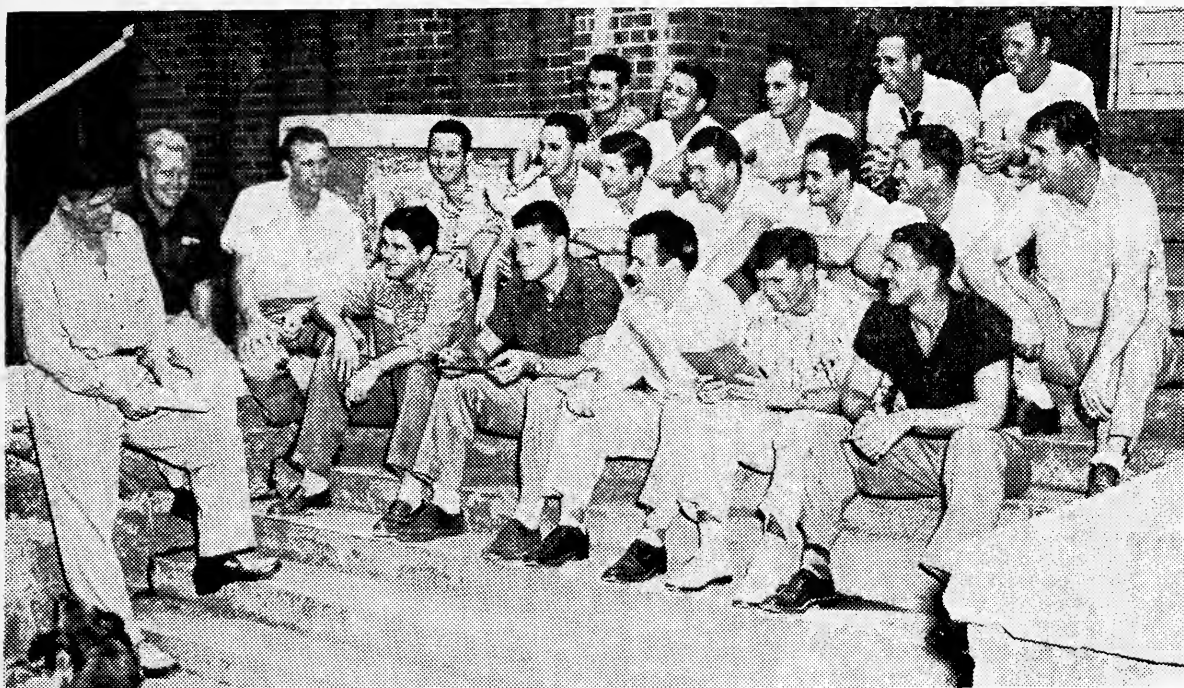

Prof. Russell E. Brown, Assistant Professor of History and Government did graduate work on his Ph.D., at the University of Chicago. Prof. Robin F. Gatwood, Associate Professor in Music, also did graduate work on his Ph.D., at New York University.

Coaches Troy Washam and Pride Rattee, Instructors in Physical Education, did graduate work on their Masters degree at Appalachian State Teachers college during the summer. Prof. William D. Tuttle, Instructor in Commerce and Mathematics, did graduate work at the University of North Carolina.

Dr. M. L. Stirewalt, Jr., Professor of Bible and Head of the Ancient Language Department, did special work at the University of North Carolina, and Miss Inez Seagle, Assistant Professor of Bible and Sociology, studied at Union Theological Seminary in New York.

Mrs. W. J. Moretz, chairman of the convention program, invited the group as part of the entertainment. Members of the Octet are: Miss Phyllis Karriker, Landis; Miss Peggy Holshouser, Rockwell; Miss Betty Barringer, and James Coggins, Kannapolis; Miss Marie Ratchford, Bessemer City; Carl Ritchie, Chralotte; Jim Daniels. Henderson, and Ray Thomas, Hiddenite.

In addition to these students, two others attended the convention as special guests: Miss Chieko Kishi, Tokyo, Japan and Miss Harriett Frye, Startown. The Women's Missionary Society of the North Carolina Synod sponsored the latter students.

Frat Sponsors Named

Four lovely co-eds have been selected as fraternity sponsors for the school year 1952-1953. The Gamma Beta Chi, Eta Delta Zeta, Rho Sigma, and the Kappa Sigma Kappa social fraternities elected these beauties in recent meetings on the campus.

The Gamma Beta Chi chose Miss Carolyn Cauble of Granite Quarry, N. C. Miss Cauble is an attractive dark haired sophomore who served as treasurer of last year's commercial class and as a May Day attendant. Last year Miss Cauble was a member of the "Snappy Sixty" marching band and is now a secretary in the Alumni Office.

Miss Jo Ann Hall, a junior from Salisbury is "Miss Eta Delta Zeta". The five foot, five inch brunette is known for her cheerleader ability, having been recently re-elected to that position. She has also been outstanding in other campus organizations.

"Miss Rho Sigma" is Miss Wanda "Bunny" Boring, a striking brunette from Crouse, N. C. Now in her sophomore year, Miss Boring is serving as chaplain of the Sphinx Sorority, treasurer of the Y. W. C. and secretary-treasurer of the Mauney Hall Commission.

A sophomore from Charlotte, N. C., Miss Doris Yount was selected "Miss Kappa

Reichle New Physics Prof

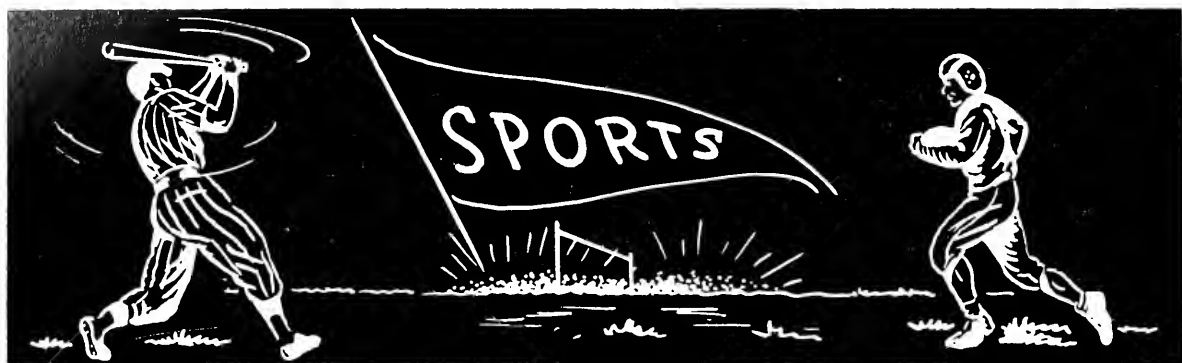

Members of the Lenoir Rhyne college community are now familiar with an erect, blue-clad, distinguished, new professor. Unlike the usual comic-book trend of physicists, Professor Paul A. Reichle does not spend his time hibernating in his laboratory conjuring impossible experiments for his brainy students. His polished crown shines from almost every corner of the campus. "Colonel Hairless", as he already is affectionately known to the student body, with his blue eyes, affable nature, and genial countenance has endeared himself to the members of the college.

Anyone engaging in conversation with Professor Reichle will soon find himself discussing fishing, especially the art of serf-casting. Another favorite pastime of his is travel, which he does extensively. He is an accomplished cook—indulging not in French pastries but mostly in salads and meats. In his younger years he enjoyed mountain climbing and orchestral playing.

Professor Reichle received his Bachelor of Arts and Master in Physics at the University of Wisconsin.

--- Bruin Eleven Leading North State With Three Wins

Once again the Defending North State Conference Champion Bears appear to be the scourge of North Carolina small college football, although some of the ferociousness of last fall is lacking from the Bruin growl.

In the three encounters on the boards at this writing, Coach Stas' Stalwarts are still unbeaten. They opened against the Pirates of East Carolina, triumphing by the skin of their teeth, 7-6. Then came what proved out to be a real "breather," trouncing poor little Bridgewater's Eagles, 79-0.

In the "big one" against Appalachian's rugged Mountaineers, the B'ars booted their extra points, the Hillbillies didn't, and Lenoir Rhyne copped a real thriller, 14-12. It is by virtue of that 1 point margin over the Bucs and those 2 measly points over the Apps that the Bruins are once again perched atop the standings. The 1952 L. R. grid outfit, despite its lack of explosiveness which the '51 club possessed, promises to get better all along. Definitely missing is the terrific downfield blocking the Champs had last season, but these '52 hopefuls will be stronger as reserves and frosh newcomers better learn to plug up those gapping holes in the middle of the forward wall.

The fellow who has drawn highest press honors this year is offensive tailback, defensive left end—Bill "Shorty" Crook. Crook, playing his heart out in the greatest game of his career, was named "Athlete of the Week" for his stirring sixty minute performance in the victory over the bitter Appalachians.

Although Crook stole some of the thunder usually associated with backfield standouts Gene and Jerry Robinson, Jim Garrett, and Steve Trudnak, these All-Conference flashes have also provided plenty of spark. The Robinsons were the whole show against Bridgewater when Gene romped for 4 TD's, Jerry scoring twice. Trudnak scored the tally against East Carolina, picked up two more against the Eagles, then booted the winning conversions and scored once versus the Apps. Garrett, the masterful quarterback, has been hampered with a broken hand since the opener, but it hasn't seemed to bother his sensational path-clearing for the ball movers.

Up front, ole reliables Giles Setzer, Jim Hummel, Ted Goins, Harold Egelsky, Jack Gibboney, and "Baby" Ray have been carrying the offensive load. Defensively along the front wall it's been Crook and Bob Sherrill, Dick Saine, Bill Watts, Bob Mauser, and Floyd McCanless who have bottled up the foe.

Linebacker and Co-Captain Sid Wilson, one of the North State's best backer-ups, has fast company in rugged Dave Kunkler who teams with Wilson to give the Bruins one of the best linebacker combines in the state. "Red" Kirkpatrick, able to play once again after a year's layoff, has been cavorting in the defensive backfield along with Wally Gilbert and the Robinsons.

Several freshmen have been coming

Moretz Urges Loyalty Fund Support

Loyalty Fund Chairman, Joe Moretz, has announced that the 1952-53 Loyalty Fund goal will be $12,000 which will be divided as follows: $4,500 for Alumni Expense, $5,000 for campus improvements and $2,500 for the Scholarship Fund.

Serving with Mr. Moretz on the Loyalty Fund Committee will be Mrs. E. W. Ridenhour of Statesville, Elwood Walton of Hickory, Brown McAllister of Concord, and D. H. "Buck" Mauney, Jr., of Lincolnton. This committee met in the early fall at the college and drafted promotional plans for the drive.

The initial campaign of the new Lenoir Rhyne program was inaugurated last year with approximately 300 Alumni and friends of the college contributing a little over $3,000. This amount was far short of the $15,000 goal set by the Alumni Association when the first drive was inaugurated.

Mr. Moretz pointed out that his committee is desirous of obtaining at least 1500 contributions, and if such is accomplished, he feels that the goal for '52-'53 will be reached. Moretz also stressed that the committee was interested in securing a small contribution from each Lenoir Rhyne former student. He further stated that it was the Loyalty Fund's purpose to serve as an avenue for small gifts so that every Alumnus could have a concrete part in supplementing the progress of Lenoir Rhyne.

along fine. Kunkler has shown up best, but fellas like Dickie Gantt, Harold Passmore, Jerry Mauldin, Joe O'Donnell, William Glace, George Carlson, Robert Henry, and Max Leitzel will be playing lots before the schedule is completed.

After the October 18 open date, the burly Bears head into the home stretch having to face Western Carolina, Newberry, Guilford, and Elon on successive Saturday's before clashing with Catawba in the traditional brawl Thanksgiving afternoon. That's a long, hard haul for the unbeaten Kings of the loop, but the Bruins are still Champions until proved otherwise, and we're kinda hard to convince ! !
